

Human Trafficking 101

COALITION TO END HUMAN TRAFFICKING
RIVERSIDE COUNTY

What is Human Trafficking?

When a person uses force, fraud, or coercion to obtain some type of labor or commercial sex act from another. It can happen in any community and victims can be any age, race, gender, or nationality, or economic background.

Force, Fraud, Coercion

Force

includes physical restraint, physical harm, sexual assault, and beatings. Monitoring and confinement is often used to control victims, especially during early stages of victimization to break down the victim's resistance.

Fraud

includes false promises regarding employment, wages, working conditions, love, marriage, or better life. Over time, there may be unexpected changes in work conditions, compensation or debt agreements, or nature of relationship.

Coercion

includes threats of serious harm to or physical restraint against any person, psychological manipulation, document confiscation, and shame and fear-inducing threats to share information or pictures with others or report to authorities.
